

TRAVEL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

GUIDELINES AND ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Each year, the NACE Foundation Board of Directors allocates a minimum of $25,000 in Travel Assistance to help fund student travel to the NACE spring CORROSION conference. Travel Assistance awards are equally distributed, with a maximum amount allocated per applicant of $300 (USD).

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Students who meet at least one of the eligibility requirements outlined below are eligible to submit an application for Travel Assistance.

1) NACE Foundation Scholarship Recipients

Students who are granted a scholarship through the NACE Foundation in that specific year are eligible to receive Travel Assistance. This includes scholarships funded by the NACE Foundation, as well as donor restricted scholarships administered by the NACE Foundation.

2) Student Poster Session Presenters

- Students participating in the Student Poster Session must be listed as both the Primary Author AND the Presenter to be eligible.
- Contributing authors are not eligible to apply for Travel Assistance. However, a contributing author that is confirmed to present on the primary author's behalf may be eligible to receive Travel Assistance in the event the poster's primary author is unable to attend the conference.
- Only one (1) Travel Assistance award will be granted per poster and per student.
- Students are required to be in attendance at the conference for at least 2 nights / 3 days (Monday–Wednesday), and must participate in ALL mandatory activities related to the Student Poster Session. If these requirements are not met, the student may forfeit his or her Travel Assistance award.

3) Student Technical Program Presenters

- Full time students presenting in any of the following technical programs are eligible to receive Travel Assistance: Technical Symposia, Research in Progress (RIP), or Research Topical Symposia (RTS). Presentations in technical committee meetings (TIE, STG, TEG, TG, Forums, etc.) are not eligible.
- Students must be presenters, but are not required to be the primary author.
- Only one (1) Travel Assistance award will be granted per presentation and per student.
